1 Introduction

The University of Copenhagen conducts graduate surveys for all professional Bachelor's, Academic Bachelor's, Master's Candidatus and Master's degrees, as well as Diploma and Academy Profession (AP) programmes according to a shared concept of data collection developed across the faculties.

The graduate surveys gather information about what the graduates are doing after their graduation, and how conditions during their studies have been influential in their later employment situation. Among other things, the graduates assess to what degree the skills achieved from their education have been relevant and sought after in the jobs they get after completing their education. Moreover, the graduates evaluate whether their education has been structured to ensure that the study programme can be completed without delay, and whether there is anything in the programme that could be improved to better prepare them for the job market.

Education Services at the University of Copenhagen is responsible for the graduate survey itself. Rambøll handles the acquisition of data and prepares a report based on the data from the questionnaires. The reporting of the graduate survey takes place on three levels: university, faculty and educational programme. This report is for Landscape Architecture.

Compared to previous reports in connection with the institution accreditation, the 2017 reports also include small, built-in analyses by cross-referencing information. The background for this is the fact that the results of the questionnaire had been adapted and reworked by the individual institutes. Therefore, Education Services has in collaboration with Rambøll worked on improving the report template so that the complete report can, as far as possible, cover the common needs that the institutions have.

The institution accreditation comprises an assessment of many educational programmes, all of which receive a report like this one. Therefore, it has been necessary to standardise the text so that it can be included generically in the reports for all types of educational programme. Throughout the report, there are guidance and notes on the individual sections and graphs. All faculties have received the complete data material for the faculty's educational programmes, which are included in this graduate survey. Thus, this report provides an overview of the survey's results, which can be further investigated by looking into the data.

2 Data

After the completion of their education programme, all graduates from the University of Copenhagen were invited to take part in the graduate survey. The University of Copenhagen offers the following types of education programmes:

- Academic Bachelor's degree
- Professional Bachelor's degree
- Master's Candidatus degree
- Master's degree
- Diploma programmes
- Academy Profession (AP) programmes (from 2016)

From 2015 all the faculties at the University of Copenhagen will use the same questionnaire for the collection of data in connection with graduate surveys in order to provide the opportunity to compare the results across educational programmes and faculties.

2.1 Table: Summary of collected data

	Bachelor	Master	Total
Invited	161	209	370
Completed	35%	27%	31%
Partially completed	9%	4%	6%
Number of replies	43%	31%	36%
Did not wish to participate	1%	0%	0%
Did not reply	56%	69%	63%

Appendix 1 shows a summary of the questions from the questionnaire used in this report.

2.2 Background data from the study administrative system STADS

The individual graduates in the survey have been linked to the variables from the study administrative system STADS described in Appendix 2. The Table shows how representative the data is for Landscape Architecture when the entire graduates who were asked to reply to the questionnaire were compared to the graduates who chose to participate by responding to the questionnaire based on the background variables.

Among the background variables, the following variables from STADS are considered significant when it comes to studying how representative the graduate survey is:

- Gender
- Average age at study start/average age at graduation
- Completion time of Bachelor's and Master's Candidatus studies
- Grades for thesis/Bachelor's paper
- Graduates who are foreign citizens
- Quota 1/2

2.2.1 Table: Facts about the respondents, broken down into graduate status

	Bachelor total	Bachelor participated	Master Candidatus total	Master Candidatus
Number	161	70	209	65
Percentage women	70%	76%	69%	75%
Foreign citizens	4%	4%	30%	18%
Average age upon graduation	26.6	25.7	29	30
- youngest	21.9	21.9	21.9	21.9
- eldest	61.2	61.2	61.2	61.2
Completion time (average years)	3.1	3.1	2.7	2.7
- shortest completion time	0.2	0.2	0.2	0.2
- longest completion time	6.8	6.8	6.8	6.8
Quota 2 at BA-entrance	1%	3%	1%	0%
Years from qualifying exam to commencement of study (average)	3	2.3	0.1	0.1
- shortest time from qualifying exam to commencement of study (average)	0	0	0	0
- longest time from qualifying exam to commencement of study (average)	19	19	19	19
Bachelor's programme as first priority	87%	87%	55%	68%
Grading of Bachelor's paper/Master's thesis (average)	8.6	9.3	9.7	10
- lowest grade	2	2	2	2
- highest grade	12	12	12	12

For future analyses of data from graduate surveys it can be relevant to examine, aside from being representative, whether the data can be biased. Respondents could, for example, be biased in the assessment of their education, if they are unsuccessful on the job market.

2.3 Reading guide

In order to make the report more readable and to live up to various ethical principles, this section explains in brief how the data is presented in this report. The report has been made for many educational programmes; in addition, there are joint reports on faculty level and for the University of Copenhagen as a whole. As described in the introduction, it has thus been necessary to work with a standardised report structure, partly on financial grounds, both in terms of the content of the tables, graphs and the text itself. The following text is thus intended to help the reader in reading the report.

For the Landscape Architecture educational programme, a report template has been used that comprises Professional Bachelor's degrees, Academic Bachelor's degrees and Master's Candidatus degrees. For the University of Copenhagen as a whole, it makes sense to look at Master's Candidatus and Professional Bachelor's degrees in the same section, as these are programmes where the graduates complete their education at the university. The reader might though have a report for a specific education at hand that does not comprise a Professional Bachelor's degree programme. At time of writing, the University of Copenhagen offers Professional Bachelor's degrees in dentistry under the Faculty of Health and Medical Sciences and the Bachelor's degree in Forest and Landscape Engineering at SCIENCE. The reader is therefore asked to consider that it has been necessary to standardise the text so that it also reads Professional Bachelor's degree, even though this may not be relevant to the education written in the actual report.

2.3.1 Q.1.1. What is your current job situation?

	Bachelor	Master Candidatus
I am employed (including leave of absence, maternity leave, job with wage subsidies, part-time hirings, etc.)	23% (16)	77% (50)
I am self-employed (including freelance)	3% (2)	6% (4)
I am unemployed (including on maternity leave without being under contract of employment)	14% (10)	9% (6)
I am in full-time education (e.g. Candidatus programme)	53% (37)	2% (1)
I am on a Ph.D programme	0% (0)	5% (3)
Other	7% (5)	2% (1)
Number of replies	70	65

Figures in this table can be included in the text in the individual sections. If there is a figure for candidates in this table, they could also be included in the following section on candidates, for example. The table here provides a complete summary of the types of figures included in this report.

For Q.1.1 in the table, the respondents have just one possible answer. If a respondent has a part-time job with supplementary benefit, the respondent should select the category, "I am in work". In some cases, the individual questions in the questionnaire have just one possible answer; in other cases, multiple answers are permitted. With a single answer option, a percentage breakdown of the respondents according to answer will add up to 100 per cent as in a relative breakdown, and otherwise the sum of the percentages will be higher than 100 per cent. The graphs in the report thus provide a clear indication of whether there is a single answer option or multiple answers.

In general, the total "n" for the graphs and tables, as well as what it covers, is made clear in the text. In some situations, "n" is the total number of respondents in the graduate study while in other situations, "n" can be conditional on the respondents who are in work, for example. Based on the graph it is then possible to estimate how many respondents there are in the individual categories.

The graduate survey invites all graduates in a given population to answer the questionnaire, where the response rate can be small. The collected data does not therefore represent a complete survey, but rather a random sample. To ensure anonymity, when the number of respondents is small, the results on the following questions:

What is your monthly salary?

Do you supplement the income earned from your primary occupation?

Do you receive unemployment benefit or social assistance benefits in connection with your unemployed status?

Why do you think you do not have a job at the moment?

Be aware that few respondents can increase the statistical uncertainty significantly, and the percentage indications can fluctuate a lot if one respondent is added or removed.

4 Correlation between Master's Candidatus/Professional Bachelor's education programmes and the job market

A main element in the educational programmes offered by the faculty is that they prepare the graduates as well as possible for the job market by giving them the skills that are sought after by employers. The graduate surveys of the University of Copenhagen can thus gather information on the graduates' assessment of how much the educational programmes have prepared them for the job market. The question is whether the Master's Candidatus/Professional Bachelor's graduates experience that there is agreement between the skills they are expected to possess on the job market and the skills they have acquired during their education at the University of Copenhagen.

13 Appendix 4: List of Bachelors' examples of elements of the study programme that did not contribute to the collective goals of the teaching offer

- Der kunne godt være mere praktik for alle retninger på landskabsarkitektur - f.eks. ved at alle havde faget Planter og teknik obligatorisk.
 - Der mangler i høj grad flere "praktiske" fag (økonomi, jura, projektering). Studiefremdriftsreformen gør det meget vanskeligt at opnå disse kompetencer gennem kurser på andre uddannelser. Desuden er det meget svært at inddrage cases fra den virkelige verden. Underviserne ser desværre generelt helst at man vælger skoleeksempler, som passer ind og er lettere.
 - Der var ikke én eneste opgave, hvor man fik at vide at man have økonomiske rammer at arbejde indenfor. Det er kun takket være mit virksomhedsophold i en kommune at jeg har en forståelse af, hvad jeg kan bruge min uddannelse til "i den virkelige verden", for opgaverne og øvelserne på uddannelsen er sat i en slags utopisk verden.
 - En del af underviserne udviste elitær adfærd i en grad, der er medvirkende til at brænde broer til andre faggrupper, i stedet for at etablere forbindelser til og respekt for andre faggrupper.
 - For meget fokus på projektløsning i stedet for at danne et konkret fundament for at kunne udarbejde løsninger
 - Praktik under bachelorskrivning
 - På første år var der en del opgaver, der handlede om at tænke kreativt og ud af boksen, der er fint nok, men jeg så tiden bedre udnyttet ved flere virksomhedsbesøg eller praktikophold på anlægsgartnerskolen Vilvorde frem for at bygge drager og den "undervisning/tid vi brugte" på "farvelære og håndtegning"
- Jeg har desuden oplevet at mangel mere teknisk basisviden om fx kloarker, materialer og producenter, når man sidder i projekterings opgaver ude på tegnestuerne.

14 Appendix 5: List of examples of elements of the study programme that did not contribute to the collective goals of the teaching offer divided on Masters Candidatus and Professional Bachelors

- Kandidat: Alle elementer var relevante, men jeg synes der manglede at blive inddraget noget af den viden man fik introduceret i f.eks. platek. Projekteringsdelen fyldte meget lidt på kandidatuddannelsen (på de to linjer Landscape og Urban). Designfagene måtte gerne være kurser, som samler op på uddannelsens delelementer.
- Kandidat: Læringsudbyttet i forhold til hvad, føler jeg mig lidt provokeret til at spørge... Hvad mener I med læringsudbytte?

Efter jeg er kommet ud i job, har jeg oplevet, at vores undervisning nok har været alt for fokuseret på videnskabelig metode (i nogle sammenhænge), og det betyder knap så meget i forhold til den praktiske erfaring, som nok har manglet i nogle fag.

- Kandidat: Meget af uddannelsen læner sig imod tegnestuer og ikke projektering, projektstyring, tilsyn etc. som bliver efterspurgt.
- Kandidat: For mange fag mindede om hinanden
- Kandidat: Ville gerne på Landskabsarkitektur kandidaten have haft flere tekniske fag i stil med Planter og teknik.
